

INDIAN EDUCATION FOR ALL MODEL LESSON PILOT EVALUATION – TEACHER

Name of Reviewer	Grade Level/Content Area	Date
Name of District	Number of students
Title of lesson

This evaluation is meant to assess the effectiveness of the lesson, not the teacher.

1. The format was clear, detailed, and easy to follow.

disagree                      1                      2                      3                      4                      agree

2. The learning activities are appropriate for identified grade level.

disagree                      1                      2                      3                      4                      agree

3. The learning activities are well-aligned with stated objectives.

disagree                      1                      2                      3                      4                      agree

4. Sufficient background information and a complete resource list were included.

disagree                      1                      2                      3                      4                      agree

5. Required resources and materials were easily obtained.

disagree                      1                      2                      3                      4                      agree

6. The lesson was easily integrated into the curriculum.

disagree                      1                      2                      3                      4                      agree

7. Any teacher in Montana would be able to use this lesson, regardless of location.

disagree                      1                      2                      3                      4                      agree

- over -

INDIAN EDUCATION FOR ALL MODEL LESSON PILOT EVALUATION – TEACHER
(continued)

8. Why was this lesson selected? Include any personal interest, background knowledge, curriculum requirements or other factors contributing to the selection.
9. What were some student responses to the lesson materials and activities?
10. What main factors contributed to the lesson's strength or weakness? Describe any modifications made to the lesson; include purpose of each modification and whether it was effective.